HELPFUL INFORMATION

Senior living/care is typically private pay, but here are some resources that may help toward costs:

- 401k or IRA
- Savings and/or monthly income
- Home equity
- Long-term care insurance
- Veterans Aid and Attendance

A Little Known Financial Resource for Veterans/Surviving Spouses

Many families are unaware of the VA Aid and Attendance benefit for Veterans and their surviving spouses. The benefit applies to individuals who require the regular attendance of another person to assist in bathing, dressing, and meal preparation, medication monitoring or other activities of daily living. This benefit is available to individuals who reside in assisted living communities, residential care homes, skilled nursing facilities and those receiving personal in-home care.

Who is Eligible?

- Any veteran with 90 days consecutive active duty services
- Any veteran who served at least one day during active war time
- The surviving spouse of a veteran if married at the time of veteran's death
